success by providing a variety of services that will assist in shaping campus life.

Furthermore, the Corporation shall provide advocacy and support to its members through its four pillars:

a. Awareness - Students are heard and represented:

- i. The Board advocates on behalf of the membership;
- ii. Student issues are solicited, heard, and brought to the appropriate governing authority.

b. Services - Students have services, supports and resources:

- i. Services that meet the needs of the membership
- ii. Support, including academic appeals, student rights and responsibilities, and other academic concerns;
- iii. Resources that aid in academic success; and
- iv. Access to health benefits

c. Social Development - Students have the opportunity to access recreational activities, study spaces, student lounges, and events on campus. This includes:

- i. Creating positive environments that develop social relationships; and
- ii. Creating opportunities to have fun.

d. Skill Development - Students have access to skills development and leadership opportunities through:

- i. Training and workshops to engage with other students, faculty and staff; and
- ii. Resources to help grow as a student and professionals in their field.

Description of Changes to Special Provisions

Please describe any amendments to the corporation's special provisions in the area below (please be specific):

Distribution of Property Upon Dissolution:

1. Upon the dissolution of the Corporation and after the payment of all debts, obligations and liabilities of the Corporation, the remaining property of the Corporation shall be distributed in such manner as the members of the Corporation shall determine by special resolution passed at a meeting of members duly called for that purpose or by the consent of all members entitled to vote at a meeting of members.
2. The members may, in their discretion, direct that the remaining property be distributed to one or more organizations, persons, or entities as they deem appropriate, provided that such distribution complies with all applicable requirements of the Ontario Not-for-Profit Corporations Act, 2010, S.O. 2010, c. 15.
3. If the members fail to determine the manner of distribution of the remaining property within a reasonable time following dissolution, or if it is not possible to obtain the required approval of the members, the remaining property shall be distributed to one or more organizations in Canada carrying on similar activities to those of the Corporation.
